Has Not Returned.

THE BEE some time ago published an ac count of the disappearance of two boys and a team of horses and wagon from South Omaha. The horses and wagon were later found in Council Bluffs, but the boys have not been heard from since. The parents of one of these, a lad named Jones, resides in South Omaha, while those of the other live on Sixteenth street near Cuming. Their name is Grayson. The father is a machinist, though he has not worked at the trade for though he has not worked at the trade for some time. The mother still weeps for her boy, though she seems to have given up all hopes of ever seeing him again. He was about thirteen years of age, thin face, with large light blue eyes. The parents will appreciate any report which leads to his discovery.

OMAHA PUPILS. Ten Thousand of Them in the Various Schools. The schools of the city of Omaha are again all in progress, the autumn term having opened up under the most flattering and encouraging auspices. Surely the splendid school facilities offered the children of this city should be a source of boundless gratification to the parents. No city in the Union can boast of a more thorough and efficient system; no city can boast of better instructors, more convenient buildings, or of better results attained. This fall all the schools, public, private, sectarian, and parochial, report 'an unusually large attendance, and a relish for study and advancement that is unparalleled. For the purpose of giving parents an accurate idea of the magnitude of Omaha's schools, a Ber reporter this morning made the rounds, and took a peep in upon the bright-faced inmates of each busy him to the malle schools. of each busy hive. In the public schools, this morning, there was an attendance of about 8,890 pupils, probably 100 less than the total enrollment. Each teacher spoke in warmest terms of the condition, the intellirence, deportment and progress of their lit-le flocks, and seemed to have entered into the renewal of their arduous work with a vim and an energy that can only be condu-cive of the most magnificent results. Next in numerical strength to the public schools, come the parochial schools, and in Preighton college was found an attendance of 152 scholars, but 2 less than their actual enrollment; at St. Catherines, 508 North Eighteenth street, 93, the full enrollment; rolled out of the wound in the back. It St. Mary's, 1614 Douglas, 71, enrollment 80; St. Joseph's, Seventeenth and Center streets, South Omaha, 249, enrollment 258; St. Peter's 2724 Leavenworth attendance 121, enrollment 128; St. Stanislaus, Twenty-seventh and Decator streets, full attendance, 59: St. Wencesiaus, 1418 South Fourteeath street, attendance 82, enrollment 83; Holy Family, Eighteenth and Izard, 235 at-tendance, 240 enrollment; Academy of the Sacred Heart, Park Place, Walnut Hill, 79, full attendance. After these schools comes Brownell Hall, South Tenth street, with 108. Brownell Hall, South Tenth street, with 10s, full attendance; the Omaha City school, North Tenth street, 50 attendance; the Omaha Kintergarten, 113 South Twenty-fourth street, 61 attendance, and the Humboldt academy, on Dodge near Twentieth street, 65 attendance. Omaha Commercial college, Fifteenth and Dodge, enrollment, 135; attendance, 105; Omaha Business college, Sixteenth and Capitol avenue, enrollment, 100. This makes a grand showing and gives a clear conception of the rapidty with which the city of Omaha is growing. ity of Omaha is growing.

He Holas Mr. Balcombe Responsible for Paving Delays.

"If Mr. Balcome told Tue Bee what was published about Regan and I in regard to the completion of our paving contracts, he told what was not true," said Contractor Fox to a Bee man. "If we are behind in our work," he continued, "Mr. Balcombe is responsible. We are pushing our work as well as he will let us. We have nearly flaished our grading where there has been almost a regular cut of four feet. Jackson street is graded and part concreted. On Seventeenth, from Leavenworth to the Union Pacific tracks, there has not been a foot of curbing laid. We can't go along and grade until the curb is laid. On Eighteenth, from Leavenworth to Farnam, the street is in the same condition. The same is true of Poppleton avenue. Then there is a block on Leavenworth and another on Twelfti where there hasn't been a bit of curbing done nor even a block of it laid on the street. Capitol avenue even is not fully curbed and yet we are trying to work on it in patches. These and other streets mentioned by Mr. Balcombe are in our contract and the delay on them is because of what I have already

I've got in the quarry and on the street about three hundred men at work, and you can say that every one of our streets will be paved before the end of the season. not be finished before the first of next July. "Who are those contractors?" "Well, Hugh Murphy is one, and why don't they talk about cancelling his contract? He has more work than he will be able to finish in the time I have mentioned."

HIS SKULL FRACTURDD.

Hill's Injucies May Result in His Death.

Dick Davis is still in jail awaiting trial for his murderous assault and robbery of Louis Hill Monday night. Hill is suffering from the injuries he received in the attack, and the trial of Davis has been post, oned until his victim is sufficiently recovered to appear in court. The attack was a more cowardly and sneaking one than was at first supposed. Davis, who is a member of the infamous family of that name which lived some time ago on the bottoms, found out that Hill, who is a very old man, hal about $25 on his person. The crook therefore deliberately planned to rob him, and carried out the scheme to the letter. He affected great friendship for Hill, and put in the entire evening Monday filling him with mixed drinks. When the old gentieman, who lives beyond the fair grounds, started to go home Davis offered to accompany him part way and went with him as far as Cuming's saloon, near the southeast corner of the fair grounds. There they got more liquor and then Davis bade Hill good night, pretending to start back to the city. Instead of doing so, however, he dogged his footsteps until he was passing under the railroad bridge, when sneaking up he struck the old man over the head with a club stunning him momentarily and felling to the ground. Hill attempted to scramble to his feet again when he recognized his assailant. He was then knocked senscless with another blow from the bludgeon. Davis then rifled the pockets of his late companion and sneaked back to his shanty on the bottoms. Hill laid in the road until morning, when he was picked up and carried home. The extent of his injuries was not at first known as a physician was not sent, for until vesterday, when it was discovered that his shoulder bone was broken and his skull had been fractured.

Davis notified the magistrate that he would waive all examination, and has there-fore been bound over to the district court in the sum of $1,000. In default he went to jail.

UNJUSTLY ACCUSED.

Lawyer Green Acted in a Professional Manner.

Tuesday morning's papers contained a charge against Attorney Alex. Green, charging him with taking a fee from Molly Wright, the keeper of a house of ill-fame, promising therefore the influence of his prother, Captain Green, of the police force. Mr. Green indignantly denies this and referred to several gentlemen who occupy his office, and who heard his conversation with the woman as to the faisity of her charge. She charged that Mr. Green had promised her immunity from police interference, particularly as regarded his brother, Captain Duff Green. G. W. Day, a real estate dealer, who occupies an office with Mr. Green, stated that he had heard the conversation be-tween Mr. Green and Molly Wright and that Captain Green's name was not mentioned. This fact was also assured by Hubbard Liney, the special agent of the National Life Insurance company, who was in the office calling on Mr. Day.

Mollie Wright was seen and asked if she and said that Alex Green offered his brothers influence in protecting her.
"I did not mean to do so," she replied, "as he did not mention Captain Green's name in our interview. He merely offered to defend me in the cases that should come before the lice court. "What did he offer to do for you?" "He said that the resolution passed by the city council was not legal and could not stick. That nothing but an ordinance could compel me to move from my present location, and that I was all right. In consequence of this I opened upiny house Friday evening, and about 11 o'clock Captain Green and a force of police made a raid on vs. and ar-rested us all. I told the captain that I thought it was all right for me to keep open, and that his brother had advised me so. He replied that he knew nothing about it, and that he

WOOD YARD FOR THE POOR. A Proposition to Keep Men Emyloyed

in Winter. Suggested by a recent article in THE BEE, with regard to providing for the poor during the coming winter, the following communient in this city named L. E. Maxwell: An idea occurs to me that is carried into successful operation in other large cities, both of this and foreign countries. This is the establishment of a wood vard by some of our philanthropic capitalists and business men, which would not only be of benefit to the deserving poor, but also save themselves from quite a burden this winter in having to aid in the support of these people.

The idea is for the capitalists and business men to contribute sums varying in regard to means and inclinations to raise a fund to purchase saws, saw-bucks, axes, build sheds and purchase wood in car-load lots. I have received prices from some of our wood mer-ohants whereby soft wood can be had for $4.50 per cord and hard wood for $6.75. The retail price of this wood here is $8 and $10 respectively. When this wood is sawed and split into stove lengths, it will sell for from $10 to $12 per cord.

I have figures on the scheme and with $2,500 a wood yard of this description could be established which could give steady work during the winter to 250 men, and occasional work to six times as many. To raise the reuired $2,500 would require contributions of $5 apiece by 500 men and by smaller contri-butions this sum could be raised without trouble or inconvenience to anyone. Early n August the idea presented itself to me and proceeded to find out what the estimate ost would be, with the above result. If this meets the approval of any person who will be willing to assist in the scheme, I will be pleased to hear from him.

Connell claims to have already secured fiftyseven votes, thus necessitating the acquire-ment of twenty-six more before he obtains a majority. It is claimed that this is a stronger showing than can be made at present by any candidate, though it is not at all improbable that there will be a lively contest for the nomination.

Mr. Connell, as well as some of the delegates, went to Lincoln last night, but the greater number of them will wait over until

IF YOU COULD SEE

The line of Fall Overcoats we are displaying this season, if you were positive how well they are trimmed and made, and if you knew how cheap a really first class garment is being offered, it would be no trcuble to sell you one. No such exhibition of stylish and elegant overcoats was ever made in Omaha, and the prices are irresistible. The season for these garments being very short, we have decided to sell them quick and marked them so that they shall go quick.

We will show you an elegant light-weight Overcoat for $6.00, made of fine all Worsred Goods, lined and trimmed in first-class manner. Coats for which other houses are asking $10 and $12, are no better Another Overcoat at $7.00 is made of a splendid all Wool Cassimere of a fine grey color with best serge trimming.

At $9.75 we can sell you the most stylish looking Overcoat you have ever seen. This is made of the new wide Wale Overcoatings-a splendid material for wear and looks. The Coat is silk faced with satin sleeve lining and regular tailor made. We have them in several of the latest shades; it is one of the richest looking garments ever shown, and any other house would charge about $15.00 for it.

Many other of the choicest and finest grades, we have not room to describe all. Come and look at them; we know we can please your taste and save you money.

We have not yet mentioned anything about our Hats this season, but the fact is, our Hat trade opened up with such a boom that several lots to which we intended to draw attention, were broken up in sizes before we had a chance to advertise them. We are now getting in duplicates already and will try to keep our assortment full during the season. Is it any wonder we are doing the Hat business of the town; when we are selling them at about one-half the prices, other houses do. The average Hat dealer can not compete with us. He buys a dozen hats of a kind from a jobber, where we buy them in large case lots direct from the manufacturer. We rather sell hundred hats with 25c profit on each than sell twenty-five hats and make 50c profit. THIS IS THE POINT.

Or the Liquor Habit, Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by Kuhn & Co., 15th and Douglas sts., and 18th and Cuming sts., Omaha, Neb.; A. D. Foster & Broounei Bluffs, Iowa.
